Supporting organization nominating statement (use additional pages if more room needed):

I agree to support the applicant in their effort to complete this course so that our organization may benefit fully from this training opportunity. I further acknowledge that this scholarship covers only tuition. Other expenses such as travel, lodging, food and time away from the applicant's normal job responsibilities are not included in this funding. The applicant or the organization will need to bear costs beyond the tuition assistance provided through the scholarship. In the event that the organization is unable to allow the applicant to fulfill the demanding responsibilities of completing the course, the municipality agrees to reimburse the Chapter with a prorated amount based on the portion of the course completed within 30 days of the cancellation of the remainder of the course or 60 days from the last attendance, whichever occurs first.
